

'Good Guys in White Hats' help Community Center

(This is the third of a series dealing with the Carmel Valley Community Youth Center.)

THE CARMEL VALLEY COMMUNITY YOUTH CENTER NEEDS THE FINANCIAL HELP OF VALLEY RESIDENTS.

Articles in the last two issues of the Outlook have presented the history of the organization which operates the Community Youth Center and presented problems and plans of the Center.

Within the next year the board of Directors hopes, with the aid of the community to meet the following objectives: To maintain the facilities of the center building and pool in a more acceptable fashion, to provide a program of activities for teen-aged youth such as has been carried on by the Carmel Valley Youth Organization and to provide a program for pre-teen youth in conjunction with the organization known as the OK's.

In addition, they would hope to make major repairs to the septic tank system, improve the entry to the grounds, paint the existing buildings and make improvements to the building which would bring it up to present building specifications. If further funds should become available, they will consider some of the other improvements outlined in last week's article.

Last Saturday an effort was made to contact all Valley businesses and solicit their financial support for the center for the coming year.

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

THIS SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, A RESIDENTIAL FUND DRIVE WILL BE HELD. Teams of volunteers will visit every home in Carmel Valley to ask for your support in dollars for the Community Youth Center facilities and program for the entire year.

Remember as you consider your donation that this drive represents two organizations which you have been asked to support separately in the past, the Carmel Valley Community Center and The Carmel Valley Youth Organization. Also consider that the contribution which you make will be used entirely for Carmel Valley needs, to be administered by a board of directors which hopes to make more progress in development of facilities and program than ever before.

Chairmen of the various sections of the Valley have been announced by President George Clifford.

In the Mid-Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Lew McCreery will have Schulte Road; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dawson, Rancho Tierra Grande; Henry Palmer, Berwick Drive; Gloria Stewart, Robinson Canyon; Dr. Keith Howell, Scarlett Road; Mrs. Mark Fields, Los Ranchitos; Getty Fairchild, La Rancheria; Mrs. Earle Wilsey, Rancho Road; Mrs. David Morris, Boronda and Garzas Roads; Lions Club members, Laurel Drive, Panetta and Country Club Drive; Harold Fly, Caminito and Chaparral; Lyde Mink, Ford Road area; Ruth Allaire, Paso Hondo area; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Verga Camp Steffani; Dr. Dan Campbell, Robles del Rio.

Carmel Youth Center fashion show

The Carmel Youth Center will hold its 19th anniversary fashion show and dance Saturday at 8 p.m. with music by the Poor Souls.

Models will be Ann Campbell, Kathy Fisher, Annette Martini, Diane Hawkins, Kit Hawkins, Bonnie Hendrix, Kitty Hendrix, Nancy Van Bibber, Chris Foster, Paula Bingham, Sid Richerts, Nancy Meadows, Lyn Vandervort, Denise Davies, Sue McCurdy, Linda Waggle, Connie Hood and Pixie Brewster.

MRS. DALE BUCHE (center) was ready and willing to make a contribution to the Carmel Valley Community Youth Center when the canvassers stopped at her door. Junior helpers Lyn Child (left) and Scott McGowan helped CVCYC president George Clifford (right) in the drive to collect funds. Be sure and give to the good guys in the white hats when they call at your door on Saturday.

Herb Jepko 'Night Cap Show' to originate from CV this weekend

Carmel Valley will be in world-wide radio spotlight this weekend when the widely-heard Herb Jepko "Night Cap Shop" will originate from Carmel Valley Inn.

The show which is broadcast from Salt Lake City's 50,000-watt KFL, nightly from 11 p.m. to 5 a.m., is a "talk program" through which host Jepko has garnered a world-wide audience estimated at more than 1,000,000 listeners.

In addition, he sponsors 130 "Herb Jepko Stands" or clubs of some 125,000 members, including the "Cypress Day Stand" on the Monterey Peninsula.

Several 100 Jepko fans from eight states are expected to attend the weekend activities at Carmel Valley Inn, both Friday evening and Saturday.

A buffet dinner from 6 to 9 p.m. Friday will launch activities and the public is invited without charge to attend his Friday night broadcast at the Inn from 11 p.m. to 5 a.m. Saturday.

A breakfast will be served from 7 to 9 Saturday and a lunch and fashion show will begin at noon.

Jepko will meet with members of the "stands" or affiliated clubs from 2:30 to 3:30 Saturday and a banquet with varied entertainment is scheduled.

No opposition as supervisors OK CV Road planlines to Mid-Valley

Planlines for future four-laning of Carmel Valley Rd. to the Carmel Valley Shopping Center at Dorris Dr., mid-valley, were approved without dissent by the board of supervisors last week.

No one appeared at the meeting for or against the proposal. Two years ago the supervisors first approved, then rescinded a similar proposal, following heated opposition.

The difference this time seemed to be that the Upper Valley is left out.

County Road Commissioner Bruce McClain commented that the widening job, which is tentatively scheduled to start in 1971-72, would not be eligible for federal funds unless planlines are widened in some spots to meet federal standards.

CVPOA to air smog at meeting

"Smog in the Monterey Bay Area" will be program topic at the quarterly membership meeting of Carmel Valley Property Owners Association Thursday Sept. 12 at 8 p.m. at the Community Centre.

A four-man panel will include Supervisor Willard Branson who is chairman of the Monterey-Santa Cruz County Unified Air Pollution Control Dist.; Edward Munson, control officer of the Air Pollution Control Dist. and chief county sanitarian; George Haltiner, head of the Naval Postgraduate School meteorological dept., and a representative from PG & E.

3 injured in Carmel Valley plane crash

Three Carmel Valley men, all next-door neighbors in Carmel Knolls, victims of a plane crash in Carmel Valley Sunday, were reported Tuesday in satisfactory condition.

They are George Morris, James W. Kalber and Cmdr.

James R. Bell. Morris, who suffered leg fractures, and Bell, who received arm fractures, are in Peninsula Hospital.

Cmdr. Bell was taken to Fort Ord Hospital, where he still is.

The plane, owned by Kalber, which had just taken off from Carmel Valley airport on a flight to Sacramento, went down on the mountain side opposite the Rancho Fiesta area, about four miles from the airstrip.

It was spotted with field glasses by Robert T. Engelbrech of Country Club Dr., who reported the crash to the CV Fire Dept. at 11:15 a.m.

The Navy also dispatched a helicopter from Monterey, after word of the crash was radioed by John Gebas, an instructor at Fort Ord Flying Club who was flying in the area. He reported the pilot did a good job of pancaking the plane, easing the impact.

Former Palo Colorado School students get choice of 2 schools

Carmel School District is offering three classes for the educationally handicapped this coming school year, an increase of the one given on a trial basis at River School last year, Supt. Harris Taylor pointed out this week.

The new classes will be offered at Carmelo School, which will serve the Tulareitos School area, and at Middle School. The classes are generally for students of normal ability, that require special learning assistance, he explained.

The school board at last week's meeting declined to act on Taylor's suggestion that another special placement program be approved at River School for students from the Palo Colorado Canyon School, which is being closed this fall.

Parents of children in the Palo Colorado area were given the choice by the board of sending their children by bus either to Capt. Cooper School in Big Sur or to River School in Carmel. Palo Colorado parents will be polled on the choice.

Mrs. Hugh Bayless of Carmel said at the board meeting that she and Mrs. Nancy Bottaro, teacher-principal of Palo Colorado School, had attempted to secure a room at Sunset Center for a private school where the program Mrs. Bottaro has taught could be continued.

A conflict in zoning laws is apparently a problem for locating there, but it is understood further efforts will be made to pursue the program.

The board approved a heart exam program for fourth graders, pending parental approval.

EDITORIAL

Carmel Valley Community Youth Center will have its one day house-to-house canvas on Saturday and we hope the people of the Valley give generously to this fund. It is the one contribution that you can be sure will stay right here and work...day after day!

A series of articles has been running in the Outlook to explain to local residents the workings of the CVCYC and where the money goes. There is no income except small amounts from rent, swimming fees from the pool and donations. Since it is the one Center for youth activities, plus being a central location for meetings of CV organizations, it seems little enough to ask the residents of this community to support it.

Give $$$ to the good guys in the white hats

In the past there was always some confusion over the Youth Center and the Community Center. Although they were connected they were in reality two separate non-profit organizations.

Now the two have been merged to facilitate a more efficient managership and use of monies. $$$$$$$$ given to the "Good Guys in the White Hats, who will be knocking at your door on Saturday, will do a lot of good work in the Valley in promoting the youth activities as well as maintaining and improving the buildings and grounds themselves.

Answer the door with a smile...and then get your checkbook!

PERSPECTIVE

TO THE EDITOR

Children's movies begin

I'm pleased to announce that the Carmel Valley Community Youth Organization is going to resume their popular Saturday Movies starting September 7. After a period of about six months, the matinees presented at the Carmel Valley Community Center will go back to a weekly schedule of superior family feature films from the major producers and leading independents.

As always, all movies are specially selected from hundreds and hundreds, so that they will be suited for the family. All films are recommended by Parents' Magazine and the National Legion of Decency (Catholic Office of Motion Pictures), which publish monthly reviews of all feature films.

By far, most features are in beautiful color, and all are in CinemaScope this season. The convenient 1 and 3 p.m. complete showings will again be scheduled each Saturday.

Over the years, there have been times when it seems almost futile in putting on the movies, due to lack of response. All costs have gone up; this includes film rentals, but we will strive to keep our low, low admission fee of only 35¢. At this low rate we will again suggest that the movies be used for birthday parties, or simply as a baby-sitter.

All showings are adult supervised so that your youngsters can receive individual attention.

We will continue to keep up a well-stocked snack bar with hot dogs, candy, drinks, and ice cream.

It is the aim of the CVCYO to put on superior family films at two convenient times, at a low admission fee, FOR YOU!...and we can't run them without your support! The members of the CVCYO strive hard to make these films a success, without financial rewards, simply as a community service - FOR YOU!

RALLY DAY AT CV CHAPEL SUNDAY

Rally and Promotion Day will be held at the Carmel Valley Community Chapel Church School next Sunday. All classes will reconvene at 9:45.

There will be a special program with a film for all combined classes in the multipurpose room. New teachers will also be introduced.

Bibles will be presented to the third and fourth grade students at this time. They comprise the new Lower Junior Division.

MPC ORIENTATION

All entering Monterey Peninsula College freshmen must participate in an orientation program Tuesday, Sept. 10, according to Dr. Jack Bessire, MPC dean of student personnel.

The convocation and program will be followed by a group meeting with instructors at 10:30 a.m. and one with counselors in the Armory at 11:30.

The Rhyming Philosopher

HUSBANDRY

Oh! the life of a farmer is easy
While he waits for his crops to grow gold,
And except for hard luck and disease, he's Got it made --- at least that's what I'm told.
He gets faced with some hundreds of questions,
So the answers jump out of his hat,
While encountering well-meant suggestions
That he'd better not plant this or that!
So he gambles on weather condition
And contends with the labor supplied;
A machinist and boss electrician
He's a jack of all trades on the side.
And of course he can doctor his cattle,
And the market is under his spell;
If it rains sometimes that's half the battle,
If it comes at the harvest, that's hell!

So then here's to the pleasures of farming
For men built of backbone and guts:
As a business it's frankly alarming
That more of them haven't gone nuts!

Jazz Festival concert to feature blues favorites

"Masters of the Blues" will be featured in the Saturday afternoon concert at this year's Monterey Jazz Festival, scheduled for September 20, 21, 22 on the Monterey County Fairgrounds.

The Saturday afternoon blues program has become almost traditional at the Monterey Jazz Festival and has proved a sell-out and critical success in recent years, according to Festival General Manager Jimmy Lyons.

Prominent blues artists who are set to perform Saturday afternoon, September 21 are: Muddy Waters, B.B. King, Big Mama Willie Mae Thornton, Jimmy Rushing and Jimmy Witherspoon. "These artists represent a gathering of the Monterey Jazz Festival blues alumni," Lyons said. "They are among the artists most asked for by Festival audiences."

Additionally, the Vince Guaraldi Trio will perform during the show as well as providing a blues musical background for some of the singing artists, Lyons said.

The three-day, five-concert Monterey Jazz Festival is now in its eleventh year. The concerts are held in the 7000-seat outdoor arena Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings and Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

Other artists who have been announced are: Mel Tourme,

Count Basie and his Orchestra, The Oscar Peterson Trio, The Gary Burton Quartet, Carmen McRae, the Gabor Szabo Quintet, Don Ellis and his Orchestra, the Modern Jazz Quartet, Lalo Schiffrin, Tom Scott, Cal Tjader, Billy Eckstine, and too, the Dizzy Gillespie Quintet.

THE WHITE KING and The White Queen in a scene from Geddis and Martin's "Alice in Wonderland". The classic show, done with puppets will be playing at the Tantamount Theatre on Saturday and Sunday, September 7, 8, 14 and 15 at 3 p.m. Advanced reservations are recommended. (Photo by John Hicks)

"In White America" to be at MPC

Six performances of "In White America," a play by Martin B. Duberman, will be staged in the Monterey Peninsula College Little Theatre on Campus as a benefit for the Seaside Youth Center.

The two-act "history of the black man in America from the slave ships to Stokely Carmichael" will be staged Sept. 4 through 8 (Tuesday through Sunday) at 8:30 each evening.

Director is MPC drama major Ronald S. Guillemette, who will transfer to San Francisco State College for the fall semester.

John Hancock, who held the title role in Morgan Stock's sellout production of "Othello" at MPC, appears in "In White America" as do MPC students Rick Wolf, Jolen Bowen and Dean Funk.

Others in the cast are Dale Diggs, Dean Funk, Sarah Ector, Don Mildner, Maria Fearman, and Jo Ann Price.

"In White America," a recent Broadway hit, was also staged by ACT in San Francisco and Los Angeles as part of its repertory.

Tickets will be sold at the theatre door.

Opera program for Carmel Woman's Club

Artists from the Monterey Peninsula Opera Workshop, under the direction of Nancy Ness Bowman, will entertain members and guests of the Carmel Women's Club at their next regular meeting on Monday, September 9 at 2 p.m. at the Clubhouse. Mrs. Bowman will present a trio of gifted young vocalists in a program of classical operatic selections, and favorite songs by Mendelssohn and Brahms.

They will be accompanied by Frederick Schaad, pianist, who was a former music supervisor in the Buffalo, N. Y., public schools, now retired and a resident of this community.

Members of the trio are Mezzo Soprano Jean Canada; Soprano Nancy Hurdle and Vincent Russo, Baritone.

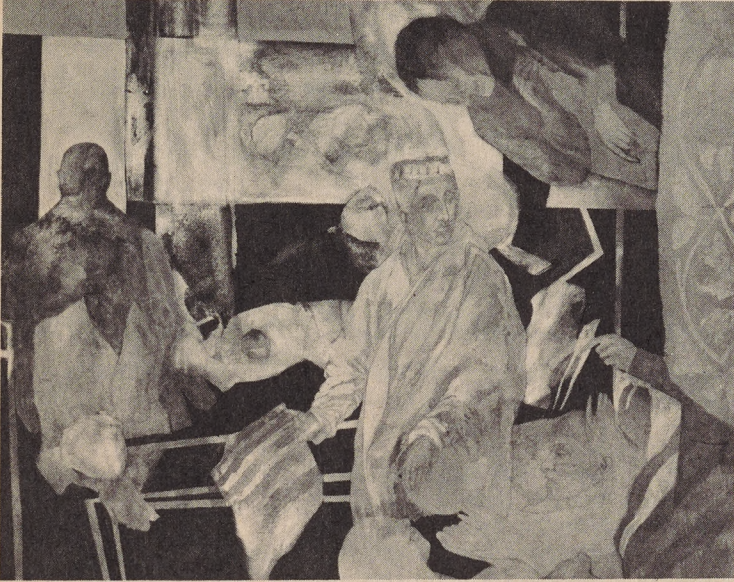

Mrs. Canada has been awarded numerous prizes for her performances here and abroad; a graduate of the University Music Conservatory in Poland, she came to this country from her home in Coburg, Germany, in 1952. Since then she has sung with the San Francisco Little Symphony.

Nancy Hurdle (Mrs. Richard Hurdle) is a voice major and a graduate of San Jose State College who is now teaching art and music in the public schools of Salinas, and since its beginnings some ten years ago, she has been a long-time member of the Friends of Music Society there, participating in the concerts of the Opera Workshop.

Mr. Vincent Russo, baritone, is the youngest member of the trio, reared in Monterey and an outstanding performer in the Opera Workshop. He played and sang the lead role in several operatic presentations at San Francisco State College where he is currently a student with a major in voice and special emphasis on the opera as a career.

Monday's program will afford the Women's Club an opportunity to become further acquainted with the Monterey Peninsula Opera Workshop, a unique organization in its service to the musical community. It was founded by Mrs. Bowman, a former star of opera and concert, now a voice teacher in Carmel.

OUTLOOK ON CARMEL

WATERCOLOR BY ROBERT MOESLE

New show to open at MPMA

Paintings by Robert Moesle will be shown at the Monterey Peninsula Museum of Art from September 11 through October 1.

Born in San Jose and now living in Santa Cruz, Moesle is an inventive and proficient young artist, who has appeared on the art horizon in recent years. He has had one-man shows in both Paris and London, as well as in major galleries across this country.

Mr. Moesle received his BA from San Jose State College and took advanced work at Ruskin School of Art, Oxford, England. Working in both oil and water color, with a low-key palette, his figure studies have some medieval, sometimes meta-physical overtones embodying a mystical quality that touches a responsive note in each viewer.

His one-man shows include the Palace of the Legion of Honor, San Francisco, in 1960 and Galerie Des Jeunes, Paris in 1964, among others; and his list of group showings is also long, including the Dallas Museum, California State Fair, and San Francisco Art Institute.

His work was seen locally at the Monterey Arts and Crafts Festivals of 1966 and 1967, where he won top honors both years.

He is currently showing in San Francisco in a three-man show with Dong Kingman and Frank Van Sloun at the Pomeroy Galleries.

Mr. Moesle will be in Carmel to meet MPMA Association members and their guests at a Preview Reception on Tuesday September 10 from 6 to 8 p.m.

Carmel mystery writer honored

The London Authors "Best Short Story Award" has been given to Carmel author and teacher James Cardwell for his story "An Apparition at Noon".

A science-fiction story, it will appear this winter in Pan Books' annual anthology of Best Suspense and Horror Stories, edited by editor Herbert van Thal in London.

Inclusion of this latest story marks the 31st time that one of Cardwell's short stories has been honored in a "best short story" collection. The writer, who uses half a dozen pseudonyms, is the author of more than 250 published short stories and 1500 articles. Under the name of Adobe James, he is included in the new Alfred Hitchcock book, "Stories That Scared Even Me". Other current anthologies carrying his work include: "Greatest Love Stories of the 20th Century", "Lie Ten Nights Awake", and "Espionage Yearbook: 1968".

Cardwell has been a member of the MPC evening faculty since 1963. During the fall semester starting September 10, he will be teaching Journalism 25AB (Magazine Writing) and has arranged with at least two magazine editors to read student manuscripts for possible use in their publications. He will also instruct Police Science 59 (Records and Report Writing).

JOANNA ROGERS vacationed in Carmel Valley from Texas strictly because she wanted to take two weeks' instruction from Leoncio Collas. Leoncio has been the professional at John Gardiner's Tennis Ranch for the past four years. During that time, he has probably gotten more Carmel Valley residents out on the courts than any other single individual.

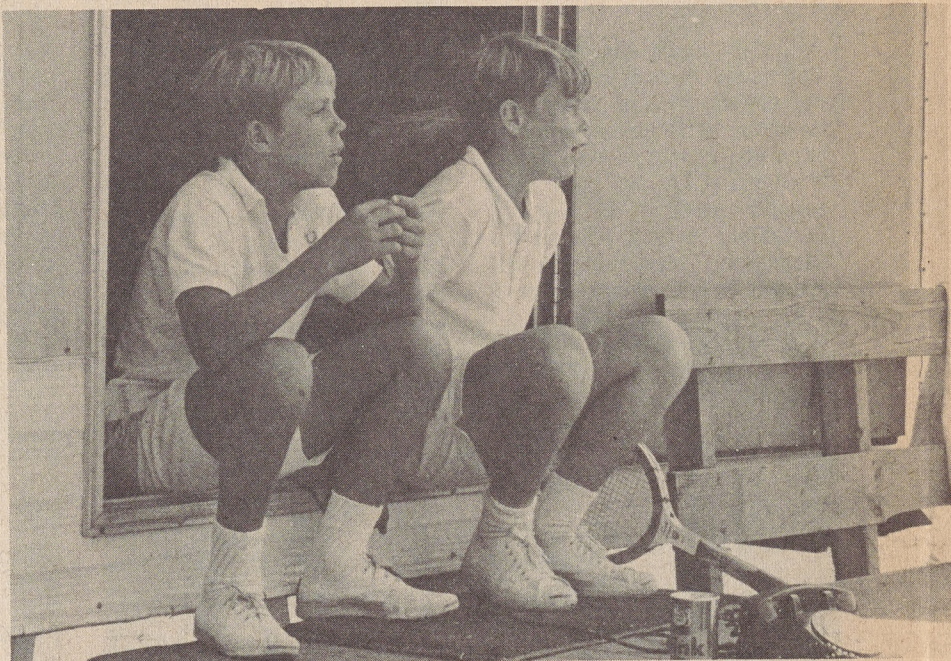

WHAT DO the children do while Mommy and Daddy play tennis? At the Racquet Club they swim in the pool immediately adjacent to the courts. Molly McGinnis, visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Douglas McEnery of Carmel, lives in England and spent the summer on the Peninsula. Her father is in the foreign service.

JOANNA ROGERS works on her volley at the net with Leoncio at the Tennis Ranch. While Gardiner's Tennis Ranch has always brought many tennis players here from afar, it is strictly a private club and relatively few local persons are members.

TENNIS JUST SEEMS TO GO WITH

JUNIOR PLAYERS Tim Cordrey and Rocky Maguire watch a couple of expert players with appreciation from the steps of the temporary pro shop at the Racquet Club.

Tennis is to Carmel Valley what golf is to Pebble Beach...or at least it certainly seems to be. One of the reasons, obviously, is the fine weather which the Valley experiences throughout most of the year.

Tennis originated in France and then became popular in England. It was brought to this country in the 19th century. In early days it was always played on grass courts and it is said that "tennis white" began because it was easier to watch and attractive against the green background and cooler.

America was responsible for introducing the hard asphalt courts which are now standard.

Most of the courts in Carmel Valley are located at private clubs, but those at Tulareitos School get a tremendous amount of traffic from local players.

During the summer the Carmel Recreational Department gives free tennis lessons to youngsters and charges a very nominal $2.50 for adults. Many of the more recent devotees of the sport took advantage of this instruction this summer, given at both the Tulareitos School and Carmel High School courts.

Players may have use of the courts at Rippling River Resort for a fee of $1 or $1.50 if they wish to swim as well.

John Gardiner's Tennis Ranch, started 12 years ago, has become a favorite haven for celebrities who wish to hide away. The number of local residents who are members is limited, but the Ranch draws many tennis buffs from throughout the country. Herb Caen fondly refers to Gardiner as "that grand old man of tennis."

The Valley's newest tennis club has drawn many of the local residents. Peter Paxton's Carmel Valley Racquet Club opened this summer with eight courts and a swimming pool. The clubhouse is currently under construction. Paxton's club is located adjacent to the CV Golf and Country Club in a protected valley off the San Carlos Ranch Road.

Rancho del Monte Resort just recently resurfaced its fine court. This facility is open to guests and those who have a swimming and tennis membership.

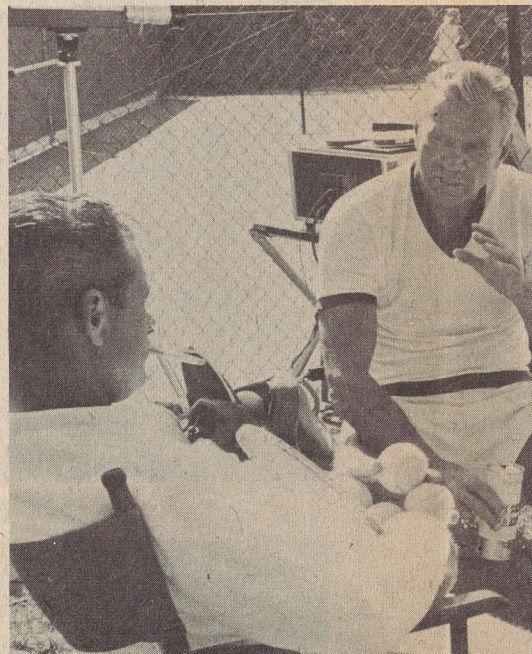

Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club has two courts which are reserved for members and guests.

One thing is sure, if you're in Carmel Valley and say, "Tennis, anyone?" you are bound to find a lot of partners.

CLUB CALENDAR

Community Chapel Guild

Mrs. Thomas B. McKiernon and Mrs. Russel Stolfi were co-hostesses when the Guild of the Carmel Valley Community Chapel held their benefit Bridge and Canasta party last week. The tables at Fellowship Hall were decorated with white mums and purple statice arrangements in individual tea cups borrowed from Marjorie McKiernon's collection. Apple crisp was served during the coffee hour (check the index of your now-in-print new Chapel Guild cook books!)

Winners during the afternoon included Doris Bundgard who was high in bridge, Pauline Sinclair - second high in bridge and Ida Duncan - the canasta winner.

The September party will be held in La Rancheria at the home of Mrs. Elbert Wade. Co-hostesses for the fall affair will be Mrs. Jenny Clark and Miss Barbara Wade. For reservations, please phone Mrs. Irving Ollason, 372-3568.

CV Lionettes

The Carmel Valley Lionettes held their dinner meeting Thursday evening at the Los Laureles Lodge. Mrs. Lloyd Todd was hostess and had used a seascape theme for her table decor.

Oyster shells trimmed with jewels were used as nut cups and presented to each member as a take home favor.

Mrs. Todd introduced guest speaker Madame Bovie who spoke on the health program which she is giving at the Lodge. It incorporates swimming, dancing and exercise.

Plans for the forthcoming rummage sale were discussed. The date will be announced in the near future. Anyone wishing to donate rummage is invited to phone sale chairman, Mrs. Todd, 659-4665, or the club president, Mrs. Herman Tedrow, 659-2053.

St. Dunstan's Auxiliary

St. Dunstan's Benefit Bridge and Canasta party was held Wednesday afternoon at the Garzas Road home of Mrs. Richard Dick. Forty four ladies enjoyed the hospitality of the beautiful Dick home. Mrs. Margaret Gregory and Mrs. Kathryn Walker were co-hostesses.

A striking red, white and black color combination was carried out on place mats and napkins. Tables were centered with potted red coleus plants wrapped in black leather and tied with red net bows. These served as table prizes and were awarded to Pauline Sinclair, Katherine Coleman, Mary Kunz, Dorothy Gonzenbach, Muriel Dawson, Johnnie Christen, Adel Reynolds, Gretchen Glod, Gertrude Sanford, Helen Denny, and Helen Tagle. The latter was a guest of Mrs. Coleman from Santa Cruz.

The prize for high in bridge, a lovely centerpiece candle donated by the Tiki Garden Shop, went to Pauline Sinclair, second to Katherine Coleman, and the Canasta to Helen Denny.

Ladies planning to attend the September party are invited to make up a table and phone Mrs. Kathryn Walker for reservations at 659-2280.

Christian Women's Club

Men's Night, a dinner meeting which occurs once a year for the Monterey Peninsula Christian Women's Club, will be held at the Carmel Valley Inn on Tuesday, September 10.

Those wishing to know more of the club activities are invited to call the chairman, Mrs. Spencer Hoyt 372-8556.

CV Kiwanis

The speaker for the August 27, C.V. Kiwanis meeting was Gen. James H. Phillips USA (Ret). A native of Colorado Springs, Gen. Phillips was graduated from West Point in 1918 and was assigned to the cavalry, transferring to the armored service in 1929.

During his career he served on the General Staff as Chief of Staff of the III Corps, Dep. Chief of Staff G-2, Chief of Army intelligence and in Greece against the Greek communists.

Gen. Phillips told of the events leading to and after the securing of the Remagen bridgehead over the Rhine River during World War II, in which operation he was very actively involved as Chief of Staff of the III Corps. This action is credited with being one of three which led to the early capitulation of the German Army.

This operation as recounted by Gen. Phillips, was a most interesting story. For his part in this action he was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal by General George Patton.

USNPGS Staff Wives

The annual membership Staff Wives' tea will be held on Sept. 12 from 2-4 p.m. in La Novia room of the Naval Post Graduate School. The wives of all the naval and civilian personnel are invited to attend. The mathematics department will be in charge.

For reservations call before Tuesday, Sept. 10, to Mrs. Kenneth Lucas - 375-0189, or Mrs. Uno Kodress - 375-7283.

Community Church hosts recital

A vocal recital will be held in the Community Church of the Monterey Peninsula on Tuesday, September 10 at 8 p.m. Mr. Vincent Russo, baritone, will present a program of compositions by Mahler, Mozart, Francis Poulenc and a delightful group of English art songs. The program is being sponsored by Nancy Ness Bowman and Betty Jane Johnson.

In the spring of 1965 Mr. Russo graduated from Monterey Peninsula College and transferred to San Francisco State College, studying under Mr. Dewey Camp. He received his B.A. Degree in Theory, Literature, and Performance in June 1967. At the present time he is studying with Dr. John Large to earn his Master's Degree.

He has performed leading roles with the San Francisco State College Workshop in Mozart's "The Marriage of Figaro" as Count Almaviva, Varlaam in Moussorgsky's "Boris Godunov", Auglielmo in Mozart's "Così fan tutte" and Mr. Ford in "The Merry Wives of Windsor."

Mr. Russo is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sal Russo, life-long residents of the Peninsula. His early training began with Nancy Ness Bowman, local vocal teacher and founder and director of the Peninsula Opera Workshop.

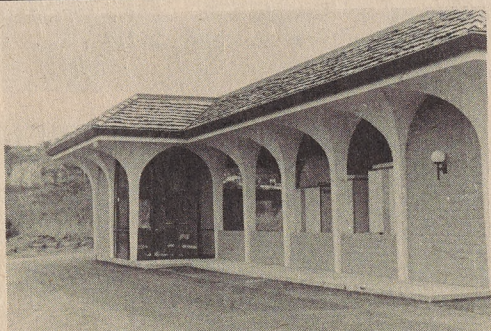

The recital is free of charge and there will be a social hour after the recital.

Local girls on European trip

Terry Stegman and Marilyn Lane, graduates of Carmel High School in 1966, have been traveling in Europe since June 20 of this year. After seeing much of England, Scotland, Ireland and France, they went on to Geneva, Switzerland where Terry took a governess position for the young daughters of J.P. Kunstle's, who are former residents of Carmel.

Miss Lane will return to San Francisco in September and Miss Stegman will remain in Switzerland and continue her education there.

DEAN WITTER & Co. INCORPORATED

If the familiar Dean Witter & Co. signature shown above doesn't look much different than it did before, it's not surprising. The only change is that the word "Incorporated" now appears beneath our name.

Does incorporation signal a big change at Dean Witter?

In some respects, yes. The accelerating growth of the investment business over the past several years with its increasing complexities has made the decision to incorporate a natural one. We are confident that incorporation will facilitate and accelerate the utilization of new technologies now becoming available for providing improved investment service for the investing public.

In other respects, this transition to corporate status will in no way affect our current day-to-day operations. We'll still have 1067 Account Executives, 57 offices from Wall Street to Waikiki, 49 security analysts, 50,000 miles of private leased wire, memberships on 18 exchanges and, most important, 310,000 clients who will continue to receive the best investment service we know how to provide.

HOUSE WARMING

One of the nicest reasons for a party, a housewarming, was given last week by Mr. and Mrs. Edward McGlochlin for Mrs. Marion Engstrom. Marion, her children, John, Paul, Mark and Lynn, have made temporary quarters on East Garzas Road for a year until the completion of their new home on Carmel Valley Road in the Lower Valley.

Mrs. Mary Prehoden assisted the hostess with the "potluck Hors d'oeuvres and champagne party". Valley guests included: Col. (Ret.) and Mrs. I. W. Cundiff, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Condon, Mrs. Howard Vail, Bruce McGlochlin and numerous friends from the peninsula. The gathering was also a farewell for Paul who returned to school at Davis and for Lynn who was leaving on the Fullbright Scholarship at the University of Mexico.

BRIDAL SHOWERS

Orley Mae White, the busy bride-to-be (Orley was married August 24) on Laurel Drive was the guest of honor at two bridal showers. Anne Warmington assisted by her mother, Mrs. R. C. Warmington, entertained with a luncheon and miscellaneous shower at their home on E. Garzas Road. Anne, who was one of the bridesmaids, invited Orley Mae's mother, Mrs. Ballard White, Mrs. Robert Reid, Linda Maderak, Mrs. Sted Wood, Margaret Leffer, Mrs. Arthur Jensen, Susan Kramer, Martha Ziegler, Mrs. David Morris, Mrs. Arthur Bennett, Mrs. James Ziegler, and Sally Bennett.

Susan Kramer, who was Orley Mae's maid of honor, planned a surprise miscellaneous shower at her home in Carmel at 8th and Torres. Susan's mother, who assisted, served her special wine cake during the coffee hour.

Friends attending were classmates from Carmel High School and the University of California at Davis. Guests included Kathy Bollin, Jennifer Stewart, Anne Warmington (all three bridesmaids), Linda Andrews, Donna Carter, Sherry Stack, Martha Ziegler, Nancy Thompson, and Orley Mae's mother, Mrs. Ballard White.

A HAMMY DAY

Vaudeville is not dead...it is just that all of the 'Hams' joined the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Department! The annual family playday was held last week end at the Fire Station. That Company II beat Company I on the score board, was incidental to the attire assembled by the wacky ball players was terrific.

Among the players was "Mr. Clean" - Ken Van Hagen (who else!), a (merry) Black Widow - Bill Ijams, and without a doubt the prettiest - Jim Yuma as a Russian Cossack. Cocktails, a feast of shishkabob, and dancing followed - planned by social chairman, Mal Tavares.

DOG SHOW JUDGE

A Valleyite, Tom Stevenson, from La Rancheria was among the distinguished judges at the recent Salinas Valley Kennel Club's All Breed Dog Show. Judges for this their 19th annual event were representative of the entire United States.

BIRTHDAY

The Naval Post Graduate School was the scene of a gala birthday celebration last week-end for ten year old Marla Stewart and her guests. Marla and her mother, Mrs. Ruth Stewart, were assisted by Mrs. Gordon Harlander and Mrs. Frank Bresk for the hot dog barbeque and evening swim.

Attending were Kim May, Katie Walsh, Laura Valpey, Karen Knight, Anita Bresk, Melody Mancebo, Cindy Harlander, Valerie Frates and Marla's sister, Amy.

The party also served as a (Cont. on page 12)

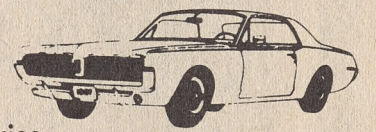

A PARTY climaxed this summer's successful sculpture workshop given by Alex Weygers at his La Rancheria studio in Carmel Valley. The six-week course demonstrated sculpture arts from blacksmithing the tools, selecting material, clay modeling, casting in plaster and carving in stone and wood. Among those in the picture are Mrs. Richard Segal, Mr. and Mrs. Trom Canab, Mrs. Jim Ziegler, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Orsino, Judy Van Arsdale, Sister Joan, Mrs. Phil Cordrey, Lee Ellen Hawley, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wiese, Jane Riggs and Don Rowe.

New exhibit at Art Association

Works of the late Marjorie Allen will be presented in Memorial Exhibition at the Carmel Art Association September 5 through October 2.

One of the Monterey Peninsula's outstanding painters and sculptors, Marjorie Allen made her mark as an innovator, inventing new combinations of techniques and methods to express the imaginative world of fantasy and mythology from which much of her subject matter derived.

When first arriving on the Monterey Peninsula from New England with her two sons, she hand-decorated, restored and refinished furniture. It was during this period that she mastered the unique technique of combining oils with lacquers; she also executed portrait commissions.

Marjorie Allen's paintings and sculptures are in private collections across the nation and she was given many one-man shows. She also won the competition to execute the bronze sphinx for the Shriners which is internationally exhibited.

Studio tryouts; new play opens Friday

Studio Theatre, Carmel, will hold auditions Sunday at 2:30 and Monday at 7 to select a cast for its next production, "Under the Yum Yum Tree". The comedy, which enjoyed a long run in San Francisco following its Broadway production, calls for a cast of two men and two women.

Anyone unable to attend the scheduled try-outs may call to arrange another time.

Opening this Friday is the Neil Simon comedy, "Come Blow Your Horn", bringing together the deft comic talents of Anita Tonn and Sam Karas who separately have amused Peninsula audiences on many occasions.
